Note from the Department Secretary:

I just returned from a trip to Michigan that I wanted to share with all the ladies in the Department. The VFW Riders of Hampton Roads made a trip to the VFW National Home for Children. This trip was done July 1st-5th. I am a very proud member of the Department of Virginia, but I have never been as proud as the moment the riders presented a check for over $13,000. This ride was organized by the Department of Texas, with riders from IN, OH, SC and a few other states. But when our riders presented a check from THE DEPARTMENT of Virginia, which was larger than all the others, I was proud.

Our Department had 17 bikes make this trip and we were represented in the 4th of July parade, with the kids from the National Home, by members of the VFW, Ladies Auxiliary, Men's Auxiliary, and even a Jr. Girls from Unit 4809. This ride is going to be an annual ride, so I want to encourage the Ladies Auxiliaries of this Department to make me proud again next year. Please make a donation any time during this year and the riders will take it to the National Home and present it personally. Send your checks to the VFW Dept HQ at 403 Lee Jackson Hwy, Staunton, VA 24401 and earmark it "National Home ride" I will make sure any donations sent will be credited to the Auxiliary with the Department Chairman. The Auxiliary will still have to make it's donation of .25 per member to national to qualify for their banner.

Thank you,
Susie DeShano
Department Secretary
